Association of Mindfulness and Inter-faith Dialogue (AMID)

Academic Year 2016-17

Association of Mindfulness and Interfaith Dialogue (AMID) was constituted to harness essential life skills through regular sessions and practice of yoga, meditation and also modalities such as learning from stalwarts of the field of spirituality, psychology, medicine, nutrition and so on. It also aims to spread secular ideas through right understandings of practices of various faiths.

AMID conducted a workshop on life skills on 1st September 2016, titled "Stress Mgmt, Multitasking: The need of the hour" conducted by Swami Virbhadrananda, Alumnus and Secretary, Ramakrishna Mission, Haripad, Kerala and on "Wisdom through Mindfulness: Managing Anger, Fear and Depression....." by Prof. Dr. Anjali Bhelande, H.o.D. Dept. of English, Ramnarain Ruia College of Arts & Science, Mumbai.

Students found the workshop very effective and both the speakers clarified and commented upon their questions & answers, and observations which threw further light on the nuances of the topic.

With the objective of spreading mental health awareness amongst teachers, primarily in view of student-teacher relationship, a session was conducted on

"Sensitising teachers on psychological issues" on 6th October 2016. The session was attended by the faculty members across the Degree college (B.Com & SFC) and Jr. college. The session was highly participative and there were discussion and deliberations on various issues demanding urgent attention.

On the basis of the feedback received from students, AMID started its maiden weekly session on "Meditation for Effective Living" from 14th January 2017. The session was conducted by CA Moses Ezekiel who discussing the significance of positive affirmation and took participants through a very effective session on meditation through self hypnosis. At the end, participants shared their experiences and observations.

Rotaract Club
(2015-16)

Rotaract Club of MLDC inaugurated its activities with the theme of 'UPLIFTMENT' for the academic year 2015-16. It was indeed a vibrant year with activities planned and executed in and out of the college campus, thereby giving the students maximum exposure and an opportunity to prove their caliber.

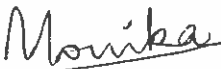

The activities began right at the onset of the academic year, on 20th July 2015 with CHAKACHAK, a cleanup drive supporting SWACH BHARAT ABHIYAN at Vile Parle station.

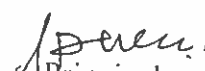

The club celebrated 'FRIENDSHIP DAY' with the students of Kalbaug Rehabilitation Centre on 3rd August 2015. Immediately thereafter, the club extended a helping hand towards their new friends of Kalbaug Rehabilitation Centre by selling the products made by them in the college premises from 6th to 8th August 2015. On 8th August 2015, slogan writing and hand painting competitions were organised in view of 'HIROSHIMA DAY' to spread a message of war free and peaceful world. On 10th August 2015, the club organised a session on Eye Care, "BLINDNESS KI DANDI GUL" by renowned ophthalmologist Dr. Hardik Parikh. On 17th August 2015, "INSTALLATION CEREMONY" was held in which new leaders were inducted to the club and new members were formally welcomed.

TEACHERS DAY was celebrated by the club on 5th September 2015 in collaboration with Students Council and NSS unit of the college. On the same day, 'DAHI HANDI UTSAV' was celebrated. On 13th October 2015, club outing was organised to detail new members about the club with an interactive session. On 28th and 29th November 2015, a district event, 'RED' was organised where Rotaract Members participated in performing Arts, Fine arts and Sports.

On 13th December 2015, a combined project titled 'WARMTH' was organised by many Rotaract Clubs wherein old and used bed sheets were collected by the members and later on donated for the cause. On 18th December 2015, the club organised 'GLAM & GLITZ', a talent hunt and fashion show competition for college students. On 25th December 2015, the club celebrated Christmas by organising 'DELIGHT' wherein gifts were given to orphanage kids in collaboration with RCMBKC. On 26th December 2015 as part of 'SWACHHATA ABHIYAN', our club performed a Cleanup Drive at Juhu Beach.

The events for the academic year concluded on 3rd January 2016 with 'WRY- World Responsible Youth', a district project where all the Rotaract Clubs of Mumbai joined hands to promote literacy.
