1. INTRODUCTION

Parle Tilak Vidyalaya Association (PTVA) was established in 1921 to commemorate Lokmanya Tilak by starting with a Marathi medium school in Vile Parle, a distant suburb of Bombay, now Mumbai, initially with only 4 students. For more than 100 years, the Institution has grown into a reputed large educational organisation with four Primary Schools, four Secondary Schools, and one ICSE school. The Institution also has to its credit three Junior Colleges, three Degree Colleges affiliated to University of Mumbai with Under Graduate, Post Graduate Courses along with Research Centre for Ph.D. The institute also runs an AICTE approved Institute of Management offering Post Graduate Diploma and Degree courses in Management. At present nearly 26,000 students benefit from the altruism of the Institution.
