Principal's message...

As we all have been witnessing the devastating impact of Covid-19, we see its all-devouring impact affecting both our personal and professional lives. If I particularly focus on the professional facets and on the lives of people dealing with small scale industries, the unprecedented challenges have forced them to adapt and reinvent their operations. It is indeed commendable to see the resilience displayed by these businesses. but the toll on mental health and human relationships, particularly among the younger and older generations, is a matter of primary concern. Small businesses, often the lifeblood economies, have grappled with several economic uncertainties. For example, functioning of several employees of our college canteen was getting into the ambit of extreme difficulty as students, teaching non-teaching staff members were primarily engaging from home. Adjusting to remote work and digital platforms has been both a boon and a burden from such standpoint.

While some have prospered in the virtual realm, others struggled with the digital divide, lack of business transactions and also the absence of a personal touch. All these have led visible spike in mental health issues. Young entrepreneurs in their struggle to find a place in the competitive markets need to confront challenges in multiple front which is driving the stress level high. The pressure is manifold, from innovation, adjusting to health of self, family and to ensure flow in business-collective factors leading to a toll on their well-being. Naturally, the absence of personal interactions and networking opportunities further aggravates the problem, affecting their mental resilience and professional growth.

On the other hand, the elderly, often involved in loss of traditional business models finds the sudden shift towards digital platforms and the need for tech proficiency have left some isolated and even disoriented. For many, these businesses are not just a source of income but also a mode of social interactions, and the abrupt change threatens not only financial security but also emotional well-being.

On the front of relation, the intergenerational dynamics within these businesses are undergoing transformation. Nonetheless, there are reports of even elderly overcoming their initial inertia standing up to challenges and showing eagerness and adapting to this digital transformation. Mixing their wisdom of experience and zeal of youth can definitely bring about a positive change as we collectively look forward a Corona free time and cautiously yet positively march towards that. Lifting of lockdown, some sections opening up to offline mode is implanting hope that things might fast head back towards normalcy.

This is an instance that mankind must remember the need for collective cooperation and support can only be the saviour. It is imperative for policymakers to recognize the multifaceted impact of the pandemic on all fronts, especially small-scale industries, and implement targeted support mechanisms. Mental health resources, skill development programs, and financial aid can be a great agency in assuaging the strain on these businesses and the individuals behind them.

As we steer through these uncharted waters, rearing a sense of community and understanding between the young and old is paramount. By acknowledging the unique challenges faced by each generation, especially given the current battle with Covid-19, we can pave the way for a more resilient, interrelated and compassionate future.

- Dr. Dnyaneshwar M. Doke

Vice Principal's message....

As we navigating the turbulence of global COVID-19 pandemic, individuals and communities around the world were forced to encounter unthought-of challenges. The pandemic has impacted all sections of society. Being an academician, I would like to reflect upon the conditions of students and teachers facing sudden changes in the shift from traditional classrooms to the virtual realm. Other than the mind boggling threats all around, it was indeed difficult for students and teachers alike to stand up to the disruption, and I must say we all displayed a commendable spirit of resilience.

The exploration of online mode of teaching and learning was entirely a new kind of shift. Moreover, educators came across the task of changing their teaching methodologies, embracing technology, and finding creative ways to engage and support their students. To keep sessions dynamic through interactions, especially when people are facing challenges of pandemic affecting lives of near and dear ones, it was a trial of massive proportion. It is a fact well-known that Covid-19 has affected the employment in most of the in most of the sectors. In the spirit of human endeavour of self-sustenance, people however took recourse to innovative self-employment process exhibiting inner strength and grit. Sectors such as Information Technology and online trading experienced unparalleled growth, propelling the digital economy forward. This also brought us face to face with the flip side revealing the stark reality of corporate layoffs, spelling an uncertainty over job security in various industries, including academia.

Amidst this uncertainty, it is heartening to note the kindness displayed by certain institutions, such as our Management, Parle Tilak Vidyalaya Association (PTVA), which gave prominence to the well-being of its teaching and non-teaching employees. They took repose to massive technological updation to provide best to the students. Their commitment to sustaining the livelihoods of all employees during challenging times exemplifies a noble blend of empathy and responsibility.

As the mind is still haunted by the horrid picture of mass exodus from cities to villages with people left with minimal or little support of basic needs of life; we now see the cities gearing towards the inflow of people returning to cities in want of jobs. In addition to the economic challenges people facing in villages, city like ours welcomes such return to normalcy with some corner of people's heart battling the fear of resurfacing of the disease.

Hope being the mantra of life which kept people together must be harnessed with an act of will to not only get strength against such an apocalypse, but also at all times hope, optimism and importantly action coming out of that becomes our second nature.

In retrospect, the COVID-19 era has highlighted the need of resilience, adaptability, and community support. It has reoriented the course of education, employment, and societal dynamics. While challenges continue, the collective strength demonstrated by students, teachers, and institutions alike hints towards a future where the lessons learned during these times of misfortune can serve as the base for a stronger and more empathetic world. This show of strength would be a remarkable feat of facing challenges that mankind rarely experiences.

Junior College Supervisor's message...

Given the dynamics of constantly evolving society, I would like to discuss the role of education in our society. Education plays a pivotal role in all of our lives and paves the way for all of us to reach our highest potential. When we talk about the importance of education in life, it is extremely important to understand what is education?

What is Education: Education is the medium that gives us the skills, techniques, information and knowledge to know, understand and respect the duties we have towards our society, families and the nation.

Importance of Education: Education helps a person to get knowledge and improve confidence in life. It can help you improve in your career and your personal growth. An educated person can become a great citizen in society. It helps you to take the right decisions in life. Mentioned below are the various features of education which outline the importance of education in human life:

Safety Against Crime: The chances of an educated person getting involved in crime or criminal acts are very low. An educated person is well aware of his/ her surroundings and is less susceptible to getting cheated or be fooled.

Women Empowerment: The empowerment of women is an essential and important pillar to optimize the good functioning of our society and nation as a whole. We can break old customs like child marriage, sati, dowry, etc only by educating the men and women of our nation.

Removing Poverty: Education is pivotal in removing poverty from our society and our country. The clutches of poverty are very harsh and is one of the main factors behind all the problems of our society.

Preventing War and Terrorism: Education teaches everyone the importance of peace and brotherhood. The importance of staying united and spreading love is the need of the hour. To achieve world peace and prevent war and terrorism, education is important.

Maintaining Law and Order: A good political ideology can only be developed if the citizens of our country are educated and taught the importance of following and respecting the law and order of our country.

Importance of Education for a Country:

Education also helps an individual in getting a good-paying job, which helps in improving the economic status of his/ her family. An educated person can also strive for the betterment of a country, More educated individuals help in creating more jobs for everyone. This in turn helps in solving the problem of unemployment in the country. Voting which is one of the basic tenets of our thriving democracy is better understood and utilised as a right only through the means of education.

Importance of Education:

Understanding our Responsibilities: An uneducated individual can never be fully aware of their responsibilities towards each other as human beings and the world as a whole. As human beings, we have to give back to the society we live in and make it a better place to live for everybody. Proper education teaches an individual to think beyond than their own personal interests and helps them in developing an ability to make the world a happier, safer place for the next generation.

Emphasis on Creativity: One of the major points of importance of education today stems from the fact that the multifarious tools and techniques adopted afford greater avenues of creativity in various shapes and forms. Universities study curricula not only includes drama and art in education but also sports, athletics, public speaking, entrepreneurship, photography, diplomacy, volunteering and much more.

Continuing Education & Lifelong Learning: Distance learning, adult education and online education are all incremental steps towards highlighting the importance of education. With the growing need for access to quality education at one's ease and comfort, many top colleges around the globe have included degree and non-degree study programs as part of their course offerings.

Editor's desk...

We heard the saying ad nauseam these days that the unprecedented times call for unprecedented actions. As we limp back to pre-new-normal situations with renewed vigour, optimism and learnings; looking back, we see how as collective beings, we have adopted a massive and unexpected line of action. Life seemed to unhinge from its centre of holding and we, as though, were trampled by a feel of ruthlessness and helplessness.

Some surmise that it is for our own misdeeds as humanity towards our environment that we are thrown at this degree of suffering. Nonetheless, we have displayed considerable grit and gumption, and with humility promised a rethink of our modus operandi as humans as a whole. Given the current scenario of reasonable improvement after a terrible scene of destruction, it appears, the divine is reconsidering to give human a chance for redemption. A return after such an onslaught kindled a flicker of hope.

All around, we can see a gradual return to a normal life. In Academia, blended mode has given the learners and facilitators a scope to adapt to this sea-change before returning to a full-fledged life brimming with social interaction.

Keeping all these in mind, the theme of this year's issue was kept as Multifarious Impact of Covid-19 and Learning to Adapt to It. These have been amply explored by contributors to the creative sections, even though, there contributions beyond this theme. The issue also highlights the year-long activities and achievements, unique activities and various web-based national and international seminars (webinars) which our college took up in the field of commerce, accountancy, management, banking, mathematics, IT, language and mental health.

In addition, the issue features insightful contributions of our illustrious Alumni, Mr Mayuresh Dharap who is at once AIR CMA, CA, CS fully Qualified Actuary from the Institute of Actuaries of India and CS Swapnil Shenvi, Coordinator, BAF to whom we extend our deepest gratitude.

We wish like every year, you appreciate our efforts in bringing about the college magazine with your constructive feedback. Wishing you all an enriching reading experience!

Entrepreneurial Carnival

An Entrepreneurial Carnival was organized for students wherein students were invited to put up stalls to exhibit their talent and enhance their entrepreneurial skills. The event provided a platform to young and ambitious aspirations who dream to establish themselves as entrepreneurs in the future through the carnival. The carnival had a plethora of stalls (28 stalls) related to food items, games, photo booth, mehendi, tattoo making, nail art and other activities and the profits earned by the students were retained by the students themselves. The carnival helped the students to showcase and augment their business, financial and creative skills.

FYNAECO

The first event for the academic year was FYNAECO FEST held from Saturday, 14th August 2021 to 19th August 2021 on FYNAECO's Instagram page: @fynaecomldcc. The FYNAECO FEST consisted of 5 mini financial games and culminated into the final event, a fun battle of FinSkribbl. The week began with a game of Finword-Chain on day 1. All the participants had to make a word chain with words related to finance, accounting, economics etc. starting with the word given - depreciation.

On Day 2, Quizaria made its appearance which became everyone's favourite game. All participants answered the MCQs related to Finance to score points.

Day 3 had the event OpinionQ, where the participants had to express themselves and comment on what they felt about a finance policy or situation.

Day 4 was all about Fun-trading. A game of mock trade with 5 stock options. All the participants selected the stock they felt had the highest potential to gain that day and the highest gainers of the day won.

Day 5 had everyone puzzled with Cryptic-Crossword, a finance crossword. The highest scorers of the games battled it out with FinSkribbl on day 6. The week-long Fynaeco Fest was well received by all the participants and concluded on 19th August with a promise to return once again.

The third and the final event for the year was 'Inspiring Stories' on the Instagram page of FYNAECO. This online event was organised by FYNAECO with the help of Faculty-in-charge, Dr. Siddhi Roy on Saturday, 1st January 2022. A TYBMS student who runs a bakery business employed it. The idea behind her business was, she wanted to bring good quality ingredients at no extra cost without any preservatives which suited the families. An FYBMS student who has his own Instagram Page where he creates content shares about his inspiring story that it is one of the most difficult businesses where there is hate and he still is continuing despite of obstacles he is facing and is growing steadily.

An M.Com student who started her business as she was jobless due to covid 19 pandemic. It was indeed very inspiring and enlightening.

Mr. Mayuresh Dharap

Brief Profile :

Mr Mayuresh Dharap (henceforth, MD) with his phenomenal academic track record, is a name to reckon with. His exemplary achievements leave one at awe as to how one manages to attain the pinnacle of all the professional and regular examinations. Besides securing 1st position in BCOM examination in Mumbai University in 2013, he got AIR:2 in CMA Final, in 2013, AIR:2 in CS professional in 2015, AIR:4 in CA Final in 2016 and became fully Qualified Actuary from the Institute of Actuaries of India in 2021. He has been working as a Manager, Actuarial, Valuation, Star Union Daiichi Life Insurance Company Limited since last 3 years. Team, Spectrum is immensely grateful as he agreed to spare some time and gave us an interview regarding his sterling odyssey into his professional and academic world.

Q1. You have an exceptional academic track record as a BCom 1st ranker from the University of Mumbai, AIR:2 in CMA Final, AIR:2 in CS Professional, AIR:4 in CA Final and a fully qualified Actuary from the Institute of Actuaries of India .What advice would you like to give to students across board in general and CA and CS aspirants in particular?

MD: My advice to all students would be to think carefully before choosing the professional / other courses you want to pursue. Meet people, discuss with them, and check whether you really like the course. Only when you like it, you would be ready to undergo hardships, sacrifice your college life (to an extent) and focus on the course. You need to think not only about the course curriculum but also check whether you would like to work in that field for a span of 30 odd years in the later course of your life. This is a practical aspect of this decision, and it often gets ignored. Once the choice has been made (be it CA, CS, or any other course), put your complete attention to it and you are sure to excel. Choice itself is the key decision and needs adequate time. Decide for yourself rather than following your peers.

Q 2. What are your hobbies that help you to deal with stress?

MD: I am not a voracious reader. But at the time of professional exams, especially at the time of CA Final, I read a lot of non-textual books - story books, novels, non-fiction, etc. I used to visit the library twice or thrice a week. It helped me to develop a broader picture of the world around me and helped me to think laterally (horizontally). Generally, we are accustomed to think vertically. Reading gave me a much broader perspective which helped me in CA Final and later as well. It also gave a much-needed break from routine studies. Those three-four months were the best part of my CA days. I was not facing any major stress issues and was at peace with myself. Also, I ensured that I do not feel guilty of the time spent in reading or sometimes doing nothing in particular. This guilt is an endless trap and depletes your efficiency further.

At the time of CA IPCC, I had faced all these issues - guilt, nervousness, restlessness, lack of attention, etc. due to too much focus on studies. At the time of CA Final, I was mature enough to manage these issues and it helped me improve my performance in exams.

Q3. A glowing resume is important for a job interview but, according to you, what are the other things a person needs to take care of or use while giving interviews?

MD: In fact, in my case it was quite the opposite. A glowing resume dampened my chances of getting selected rather than enhancing them. I was determined to take up a job with an actuarial profile and not a finance/treasury/audit role. But most of the prospective employers found me to be over-qualified and hence it was quite a struggle for me to get going. Later, I came to know that employers fear whether such over-qualified candidates will soon leave their organization and hence are reluctant to invest in their hiring / training, etc. I think having a good presence of mind, showing the prospective employer that you are trainable and demonstrating to him that you can be trusted are quite important. You need to demonstrate that you are ready to unlearn the unwanted stuff and learn new things. In today's corporate world, results are an outcome of team efforts and hence the concept of ECHO (Empathy, Collaboration, Humility and Ownership) plays a key role. Along with a glowing resume, cultivating these traits is equally important.

Q4. You have been at Star Union Daiichi for 3 years now, what are your future plans and in which field would you like to grow more?

MD: I am growing well (financially and also in terms of learning) in my present organization. I have recently been given a managerial role and I am learning how to be a good team manager. I think I would continue to work in the life insurance industry in future. I have learnt that after a certain point, it is unwise to change your career track by 360 degrees especially for growth in the corporate world. I have made many career shifts in the past, from CA to teaching to actuarial and so on. It was a part of my own exploration and now I think I would continue with what I am presently doing. Although I continue to stay here, learning new things related to my profession would go on.

Q5. Which is your creative side that you would like to explore more in addition to professional growth?

MD: I like to write poems in Marathi (my mother tongue). There was a Marathi Poet, "Grace" (Manikrao Godghate) who has had a deep influence on me. His poems convey the harshness of the real world without painting any rosy picture but compel us to find beauty even in that harshness. Poet Grace used to say, "I don't write to please anyone, but to release myself". Although I am not a great poet, I too write to release myself, to release all the emotions and thoughts which otherwise clutter my mind. Over time, it helps to have a clear mind and helps me to be more sensitive to the outside world.

Q6. What according to you is the one prominent trait of your personality that has helped you to come this far?

MD: I think continuous faith in myself, my abilities and the will to work hard to achieve the goal at hand have kept me going. I would never like to be unprepared for an exam or while taking a lecture or while doing a corporate presentation. You have to be honest with yourself to know that you do not know. If I am not confident, I will rather spend time with myself in understanding where I am going wrong and finding out that which I am unable to grasp. Continuously working on myself in this way has helped me so far.

Q7. How have the people around you supported you?

MD: I think I have been incredibly lucky to have family members, teachers, friends, students and colleagues who have always been supportive in my studies and in my life as a whole.

Especially my teachers have been very caring and have taken care of me like their child. With my efforts, probably $2 + 2$ would have been equal to 4. But with their prayers and well wishes, $2 + 2$ turned out to be 10. I fully acknowledge and understand how important a teacher is in the life of a student. I too have been on the other side as a teacher (although for some time) and know how it feels when a student excels.

Q8. You have an outstanding profile, but because of this do you feel pressurised to live up-to people's expectations?

MD: I used to feel pressurised that I cannot live up to the expectations that would be created in people's minds looking at the qualifications in my profile. I was initially quite frightened to face job interviews for this reason. But after having faced a few job interviews and having worked in the corporate world for some time, this pressure is unnecessary. In any case, you cannot live up to people's expectations. It is better to live up to one's own expectations and be true to oneself. Life becomes quite simple when we understand this. We are human beings. It is okay to not know something, it is okay to fail sometimes, but the key is to go on even after this. One will never go unnoticed if one is honest in his/her endeavor and is continuously willing to contribute.

Q9. What helped you to focus while studying and keeps you motivated to contribute on a regular basis?

MD: While I was a student, it was the outcome (that I know the subject well, that I would be able to face any question on the subject in the exam, that I would get an All-India Rank), which helped me to focus well while studying. But over time, I have been trying to shift my motivation from the outcome to the process itself. The process should be joyful irrespective of the outcome. Too much focus on the outcome can be stressful at times. Hence, knowing the outcome fully well and enjoying the journey to reach the outcome is the better way to stay motivated.

Q10. How did you go about with your studies? What are the techniques that you used that helped you?

MD: My style of studying is something which I would not ask anyone to emulate. I could never study in a library in a peaceful and studious environment. My mind needs to be relaxed while studying so that I understand what I am reading. So, I used to be in the sleeping position on my bed with my textbooks (although I ensured that I do not fall asleep). But that is how I could easily grasp what I read.

A basic plan for studies (which was not followed hard and fast, but which served as a blueprint of how to go about the vast syllabus), continuously evaluating whether I can answer past questions based on what I read, note making to the extent required to deal with paucity of time, choosing the right set of books (right authors) which suit me, were some of the key techniques which helped me.

Q11. Who did you look up-to as your role model and what attributes did you procure from them?

MD: There is no single role model. There are many people among my friends, teachers, students, colleagues who have deeply influenced me. Sometimes even trivial things in life teach you great life lessons. A laundry man ironing my clothes with complete dedication, communicates so much to me without even speaking a word.

At my workplace. I am trying to learn many things especially from my bosses. The precision with which they communicate with their seniors, the way in which they interact with us, clarity of thought, their approach to solving problems at hand, are some of the attributes which I would like to develop myself. There is a long way to go but I will keep on trying.

Mom : You will not.

June 2022 -

Contrary to the expectations of many of my relatives and friends, I had decided to take up commerce after my 10th standard exams inspite of scoring very well in the SSC examinations. My marks would have helped me get FYJC admission in one of the finest colleges across Mumbai (finest here implies infrastructure-wise). I was just like any other student who used to give more importance to the infrastructure at a college before taking admission there. And I was obviously livid at my mother for asking me to take admission at MLDC.

I can recollect MLDC of 2008 very vividly. It was a ground plus 2 floor building with huge classrooms and construction of 2 more floors going on in full swing. The debris and construction material lying around was a testament to this fact. Any outsider would try to distance from such a place, just like we avoid all under-repairs road and under-construction metro sites. It is only much later that we realized the importance of that under-construction phase. Probably 2008-2013 was the foundation building era for MLDC, and for me too.

Back then, MLDC just had Junior college, the vanilla B.Com. course and M.Com., and a few SFC courses with one or two divisions each. It was a time when MLDC had already established itself firmly as a prominent Institute for commerce in suburban Mumbai. However, it was also this time that MLDC had to scale up and ensure that it retains its glory of the past four and a half decades.

I can intensely remember how the then Principal Dr. Madhavi Pethe left an indelible mark on the minds of the student community by steering the college towards success. I was very fortunate to witness and be a part of 'The Golden Jubilee Year' of the college wherein we had scores of events showcasing the brimming talent that MLDC had. We had stamped our authority at various places at the University level by winning medals, trophies, accolades and adulation of many. I had never imagined my college life to be this 'eventful'. The motivational cry 'Say M Say L Say Dahanukar' still reverberates in my ears and is hugely popular amongst the students even today. 7 years in the same college was a sort of achievement as many students have the tendency to switch over to some other college mid-academic life. The student days taught me how infrastructure is a secondary thing and the culture at the place is of primary significance. I can attribute large parts of my personality to this place. 5000 plus students but very few are blessed with an opportunity to be on the other side of the table. I was lucky enough to have successfully cleared my interview and work as faculty in my Alma Mater.

From being the junior most faculty at the time of joining to being the head of the department (Coordinator of B.Com – A&F), I have seen my career trajectory go upwards. I have seen the other side of the teaching industry and what challenges an Institute faces to run the academics and allied activities smoothly. It was at this time that I realized that due to certain regulatory restrictions, MLDC could not provide the best of the infrastructure to its students. Just to point out, MLDC has made sure that it complies with highest legal, ethical and moral standards and that sometimes acts as a hurdle for providing the best to its student fraternity.

I have been associated with various colleges over the years and seen the sea-change in the education system. From being the best in offline education to a seamless transition to online education during the pandemic times, MLDC has astonished its stakeholders with its precision in implementation. From 'chalk-board' to 'computer-projector' to 'smartboard', the transition has happened in a jiffy and this is no surprise that MLDC has accepted, absorbed and excelled in all this. With National Education Policy round the corner, the current Principal Dr. D.M.Doke is ably spearheading all the efforts in its obstacle-free planning and implementation along with a magnificent and efficient teaching and non-teaching staff. We usually witness our children growing up, our parents aging, our housing societies changing, but what we fail to observe is that our Alma Mater also is growing, aging and changing. Looking back on an everyday basis, we never see any change in our Institute but when we see the larger picture, we realize that everything has changed. Sometimes, people have a sense of grief towards their Alma Mater. I have a sense of gratitude, for what I am today is largely because of MLDC. It has changed my 'Can I' self-doubt to 'I Can' self-confidence. I have myriad memories of this place which are difficult to pen down on a piece of paper.

The college has given me a lot of friends, teachers, colleagues and relationships which I can treasure for the times to come. When I sit back and reminisce all these facts, I can only smile in happiness. I do not know where I may head to, in the times to come, but I will surely cherish is the time spent at this Vastu!

The Truth.

It really is disheartening.
The truth. The demise.
Facing the reality,
Without holding the power to alter it!
Coming face to face with death,
Realised how trivial,
We thought, life was.
We have forgotten how to live.
We now, just pass the time.
One day we are going to leave!
Everyone's aware of it.
Yet, we decide to take it all as a pleasantry.
The emotions are no more real.
Feelings often hidden.
Does being anger really help?
Is being sour so essential?
Why can't we treat
Each other with patience.
Is our ego so important?
That we spend so much time in its contemplation!
Who are we to judge others?
What do we really know about them as individuals?
Why not we live as if this is the lastday!
Treat others as if this is the last time we might meet.
Sing a song and dance on the rhythm!
Forget the fact that there are worries!
Be really happy for others and ourselves!
Enjoy the life as it is.
Try to be humble and kind.
Savour the moment,
As it's passing by!
Nothing is permanent
No one's immortal.
Find ways to really live.
And not just strive for existence.

Lockdown

The country stands still,
There is Quarantine and chill.

The city that never sleeps has gone in coma,
In the air there is nature's Aroma.

The lifeline has gone down,
No one is now fighting for the crown.

People are becoming virtual friends,
Namaste is nowadays in trend.

Instead of smile people are wearing mask,
Trust me it's a really a difficult task.

Mobile is now a full day toy,
Holidays give no more joy.

Washing hands and not touching face,
Staying home and staying safe.

Life is now on a slow phase,
I miss those golden outdoor days.

This shall pass too,
It will be past soon.

What you are witnessing will be a history,
For future generation it's definitely going to be a mystery!

BE RESILIENT....

Everything was peaceful, now it's not...
I am watching news and waiting For this turbulence, To calm down Start was tormented, so it's now... Those four seasons had passed, Still there's struggle to adapt

Now again it's summer....
And it turnout to be a danger This is said to be second wave...
But we don't know how long it's going to pave...
Before no one was aware,
So people rushed back to hometown
As it was speculated that there will be a full-lockdown.

Except essential services at stipulation
Nothing was Open....
Humans were deprived of outgoing,
Deserted roads, Gardens were only for viewing.

This lockdown dropped the economy It affected the whole situation badly
Then it came to knowledge sitting and doing nothing won't be helpful,

It was necessary to keep up with the whole cycle. Solution was only to continue our jobs online & virtual.

Although this work from home made mental as well physical health deteriorating. We are still coping.

Think more positively, Don't let your hopes down... We need to be strong n flexible enough to fit in Since rigidity only lead us to cease to exist.

This is the norm everyone needs follow
it.

Try to keep yourself out of whirlpool of negativity,

Yes, it's okay that you are not okay,
Open yourself up, confide what you r suffering from. Follow the things which are essential for all

Look for opportunities in this situation to turnaround.

I am sure of it if we take steps to improve however small it might look.

Will get closer to what we hope for.

Accepting this reality is obligatory

So try not linger any longer in the past,

Build in the resilience...

Since its only way you can surpass it.

-SAMIKSHA SAWANT(SYBAF)

Accept the things you can't change

Our current reality is interpreted by one word 'uncertainty'. If I could describe what it's been like for the past one year, I would definitely mention the time I got to pause, reflect and reset where I need to. This pandemic has brought us to a realisation where one can redeem them self with the power of resilience. The only key to sustain a good well-being is expecting less and accepting more.

These are unfortunate times, wherein the entire globe has turned upside down and people have not only lost their jobs but most importantly their sanity is at risk. You are afraid of change and that compels you to be in a state of denial which keeps you from the truth because that's where the 'hope' lies. The reason being 'You Resist Change'. You're so comfortable in your own skin that you do not feel the need to shed it. Change impels you to do things you didn't feel confident about in the past, it makes you adapt to circumstances you did not see coming. I happen to realise we were having a tough time but, in a lot, more sense it was like a blessing in disguise, because even in this time of crisis we got some good things to look forward to like spending time with our loved ones. Not just that we also understood the due importance of nature. I believe if you try to find the good in the bad you won't be disappointed. You can't have everything under control and the sooner you accept that the better. There will always be a moment in life that you can't do anything about. When you learn to accept the inevitable rather than rail against a situation making it more stressful, you give rise to growth. The fact that you keep moving forward. Change is the only constant. Every coin has two sides, always look at the bigger picture and think, 'Is this really something worth having your attention?' because even the most traumatic experiences can be an opportunity for personal growth.

A reminder, if this pandemic never took place, then this version of who you are now would have never existed. Growth is painful. Change is painful. But nothing is as painful as being in the same state of mind when you could've healed and been in a better position. Thus, I would like to conclude with a short poem,

There is no better time than now,
Manifest in becoming the person you wish to be
Have the courage to outgrow; Do yourself a favour,
Let go of what isn't meant for you.

Harnessing Creativity Within: The Art of Resilience

The whole world is facing a deadly pandemic called Covid-19 which is caused due to a Virus 'Corona' initially originated in China. Initially when this pandemic started, it was the toughest time for nations. Many people worldwide were affected by this virus and it also resulted into many deaths. To overcome this situation the government had declared 'Lockdown, where all the industries, businesses were shut down, and people were asked to stay at home. Many people lost their jobs. And truly, staying at home for so many days was like a mental torture, still we found ways to keep ourselves calm in this tough situation.

Though this virus had created a lot of destruction all around, but there was also a positive side of this lockdown. Often due to busy schedule and work, we did not have enough time to spend with our families, but due to this lockdown, we could spend quality time with our families. Secondly, due to the pandemic house help couldn't reach our doorstep to do household work, so we learnt to do our daily chores on our own. This kept us engaged and away from stress. Many of us pursued our hobbies of being Chefs, Artists and got an opportunity to express themselves. We did many things to keep ourselves optimistic like cooking, painting, gardening, reading, etc.

Another stress buster was entertainment as several old television shows were telecasted again like 'Ramayan', 'Mahabharat', 'Shaktiman' and many more. These shows kept us going and pushed away all the negative thoughts. Many of us started watching web series on various OTT platforms. Netflix subscription peaked upto 10.2 million during lockdown from April to June.

Although companies, offices, were closed many of the companies asked their employees to 'Work From Home' which kept the companies functioning. In spite of the barrier of not moving out of our houses we did continue our work through digital platforms, we got introduced to digital platforms and also started using them. Digital Platform became our 'New Normal'.

Surviving in such a situation was a difficult task, but we made it possible. Resilience 'the art of handling tough situations like a sport' helped us to overcome our mental stress in the pandemic situation.

COVID 101

Introduction

The Covid-19 Pandemic, caused by the widespread transmission of the SARS-CoV-2 virus, has had unimaginable consequences on the entire world. With over 500 million confirmed cases, 6.32 million confirmed deaths, and 25 million COVID-induced deaths, is already among the deadliest pandemics in history in merely two and half years.

Body

The outbreak began in November 2019 in Wuhan, China. The virus went global in just a few weeks, with cases rising in other countries. On 30th January 2020, an MBBS student evacuated from Wuhan tested positive for the virus in Kerala, India. This marked the first case of Covid in the country, and the transmission of the disease to large portions of the population began.

After a rise in Covid cases in the country, the Indian government initiated emergency protocols and announced a nationwide lockdown on 25th March 2020. In the midst of the disaster, the world's population was hit with the most significant economic recession since the 2008 housing crisis. Oil prices and stock markets tumbled while the rate of inflation spiked.

International travel was restricted, leading to the collapse of the hospitality, tourism, and aviation industries. Small businesses began shutting their doors and larger corporations began laying off workers and implementing other cost-cutting measures, leading to sharp rises in unemployment.

Governments made tough decisions to keep their citizens safe and economies stable. Some countries handled the pandemic extremely well, fending off the crises on all fronts. While countries like Brazil demonstrated how bad management could affect a nation. Panic buying left grocery stores unable to keep their shelves stocked because essentials sold out in a matter of minutes. And soon, grocers were unable to stock their shelves at all as the pandemic exposed cracks in the global supply chain system, making essentials unavailable to large portions of the public. And no, the supply chain crisis was not caused by one large ship stuck in the Suez Canal. Eventually, consumers were forced to pay exorbitant prices to purchase essentials on a black market that typically sells illegal alcohol and pharmaceuticals, and risk being scammed or sold counterfeit goods.

When the world's distribution system began to fail, it revealed an entire array of new problems. The global chip shortage shook the automobile and electronics industries, making it clear that domestic semiconductor fabs are a necessity. The energy crisis hurt countries like the UK, USA, China, and even India, with power plants left with less than three days of coal reserves, until Coal India ramped up production. The increase in energy and fertilizer prices and the effects of climate change have correlated with food insecurity, causing the worst price increases since the 2007 food crisis.

The lockdown in India led to an estimated loss of 140 million jobs, bringing the unemployment rate to a staggering record high of 23.5%. Displaced migrant workers soon began the largest mass movement of the population since the Partition in 1947, emigrating from metro cities to their hometowns. The GDP growth rate for the first quarter of FY 2020-21 was -23.9%, the lowest in history. The Consumer Price Index (CPI) remained roughly around 6% but reached an eight-year record high of 7.8% in May 2022. In response, the government announced a $22.6 billion relief package to assist sections of the population affected the most. Moreover, the government created a $266 billion support package to aid the faltering economy.

Virtual school lectures, religious ceremonies, office training, and movie nights replaced in-person face-to-face contact. Relatives of patients scrambled to procure essential medicines and oxygen cylinders if they could find a hospital bed at all. Frontline and essential workers fought fatigue and depression to ensure the rest of the population remained safe. The public thanked them in creative ways, like the one instance where we collectively banged utensils on our balconies, scaring every animal and bird within a five-mile radius. Police officers fined those who defied the lockdown restrictions, making examples of them. Some actions by the police were applauded, while other instances left the public appalled. The media popularized new terms like 'Social Distancing' and 'Herd Immunity' along with stories on 'Covidiot' who caused 'Superspreader' events. Interestingly, air and water pollution in many countries fell considerably during the lockdown due to the restricted movement of their populations, while others still struggled to meet their emission deadlines.

And throughout the chaos created by the lockdowns, massive wildfires broke out in California and Australia, there was an explosion in Beirut, the Taliban returned to power in Afghanistan, Russia invaded Ukraine, and global debt surpassed $300 Trillion. But at least people united during the Black Lives Matter protests even though social distancing was sacrificed during the pandemic; it was necessary to show that we could put aside our differences and stand united behind a cause.

However, none of the aforementioned problems compared to the anguish felt when a loved one was lost to the Coronavirus. Almost everyone experienced such loss in the past couple of years. However, it is important to recognize that the world managed to pull through and continues to do so every day. Individuals function as normally as possible while working their way through the pandemic nightmare, that is so twisted it almost feels like a fictional movie.

Conclusion

New variants of the virus, followed by new vaccines and boosters emerge every few months. Estimates from the World Health Organization (WHO) states that the pandemic may not be contained before 2025 and suggests we may never fully eradicate SARS-CoV-2.

It may be years before we can recapture the freedoms and liberties enjoyed before 2020.

Until then, we must continue to adapt to the constantly changing environment, just like the virus.

The writer urges readers to follow established health protocols and precautions to stay safe.

Representation of, “Eve” in the “Book of Genesis” and that in Milton’s, “Paradise Lost.”

Of all the characters in “Paradise Lost”, Eve is perhaps even more than Satan, the most interesting and developed character of Milton. “Eve” occupies a pre-dominated place in the entire fabric of the epic. She is the pivot around which the entire action revolves. It is Eve who in fact sets the events by eating the forbidden fruit.

Eve is the most beautiful woman made from Adam’s rib to be his companion. She is loyal, just and pure. Eve in the, “Book of Genesis” is subjugated and undermined. The character of Eve in Milton’s, “Paradise Lost” develops gradually in the epic. Milton’s representation of Eve is a radical departure from the iconographic tradition of representing Eve in Genesis. Eve in the epic from the very beginning realizes her beauty. She constantly asks questions regarding her, “self-identity” and “self-assurance”. Eve isn’t a lifeless character in the epic. She possesses an identity of her own and has strong feelings. Milton has made Eve a convincing character. She is projected as a grand, majestic and responsible woman having the desire to labour.

Milton has painted his Eve with a liberal brush. The idea of independence of Eve is seen in the epic through the notion of labour division. The notion of dividing work promotes the mutual efforts shared by partners in a relationship. According to Adam, “not so strictly hath our imposed labour”- his idea regarding work is that of a desire. He thinks God will provide them whatever they need. Moreover, he takes the work as, “to delight”. Eve, on the other hand takes the work as a, “task” assigned by God. She says, “Early, the hour of supper comes unearned.” Milton has made his Eve as a, “thinking” woman. He wants her to be acknowledged with the struggle to earn. She takes the work as a, “responsibility” towards God.

One can say that Eve is far much mature than Adam in the epic. Eve raises important questions relating to virtue, submission, freedom, subjectivity and the nature of marital bond, both before and after her transgression. Eve in the Paradise Lost is compared to a, “Circean”. It indirectly states that Eve is having the power to cast spell over men with her beauty.

The principal of, “Reason” is mentioned by Milton in Aeropagitica. This ensures that God has endowed both Adam and Eve with a, “Reason”. The idea of “Reason” is that of the, “Free-Will.” Free-Will is nothing but the idea of choosing. So, in a sense Eve’s, “Reason” and “Free-Will” allows her to eat the forbidden fruit. Unlike in Genesis, where Eve is solely blamed for the fall. In the epic, Adam too is an equal participant in the fall. Therefore, Milton has proposed the idea of, “Felix-Culpa” which is the fortunate fall.

Lost and Found!

It's me trying to figure out where I belong,
And sometimes I feel solitude is growing strong.
Wandering in myself, walking on those empty paths,
The circles that trapped me, I don't want to be your part.
I know I don't fit in and I need some help,
At that time universe replied, the person you belong to was just yourself.
Before anyone else you are your own,
And being with yourself you have always grown.
The sudden uncertainty and the burst of love you feel,
The strong emotions you are trying to conceal.
Those chaotic circles you are running within,
They are leading you back, back to the place where you begin.
So, my darling if you want to win,
Search yourself, your purpose, your meaning and let the magic begin.

Inner Peace

I don't think people understand the 'real' problem.
First of all the word 'problem' is looked upon as a negative thing because maybe it is, but look at it in different way if we don't have obstacles or if we don't face crisis in our life then what is the point of living and how will we deal with other bigger problems.

The constant things in our life are 'MEMORIES' and most importantly 'PAIN'.
Ok so here's the thing we have to learn how to adapt to live with pain instead of searching a way to eliminate it.

Life is difficult it is meant to be difficult and complicated.

We are constantly dealing with so many things, constantly chasing 'temporary' satisfaction/happiness instead of focusing on ourselves.

But after all of it How do you feel?

Are you happy? Like really?

Are you sure if you get that particular (materialistic) thing you'll be happy forever?

Of Course not!

The most significant thing is to be happy within i.e inner peace.

I think once you achieve your inner peace there's nothing else that will bother you.

MULTIFARIOUS IMPACT OF COVID 19 AND LEARNING TO ADAPT TO IT

The rapidly evolving cases of Covid 19 had made us all stress a lot about it. COVID 19 had wreaked havoc across the world and had hit almost all sectors. There had been a lot of reports about the increasing number of heart diseases caused to people because of stressing a lot on this topic. The world was no longer a live-able place. There were a lot of changes made to the entire day-to-day functioning of essential and non-essential sectors.

Work from home was new company culture, Students attended their lectures at home, and things evolved like never before, and with their changing lives, people adapted themselves to the changing environment. COVID-19 has impacted the lives of people around the world including children and adolescents in an unprecedented manner. In young children and adolescents, the pandemic and lockdown had a greater impact on emotional and social development compared to that in the grown-ups. In one of the preliminary studies during the ongoing pandemic, it was found younger children (3-6 years old) were more likely to manifest symptoms of clinginess and the fear of family members being infected than older children(6-18 years old). Whereas, the older children were more likely to experience inattention and were persistently inquiring regarding COVID-19. It was also shown that children experienced disturbed sleep, nightmares, poor appetite, agitation, inattention, and separation-related anxiety.

But things became better, as improved telecommunication capabilities were made for schools to be able to deliver education online. A time of crisis also became an opportunity for all education systems to look into the future, adjust to possible threats, and build their capacity. People were fighting battles not just physically, but also emotionally. But at last, people were able to sustain the changes they faced and became stronger to fight the challenges that they were facing.

Covid made a lot of positive changes too in the lives of people, people started practicing hygiene which is one of the essential things. It made people understand the importance of health which is often taken for granted but is true of great importance. It made people understand that everything is uncertain may it be finances, relations, or lives, so it is necessary to think wisely about their relationships with people, their spending habit, and also to take proper care of their health. It educated people about being importance to have emergency funds, which can be generated with proper investment and security. Distance education became easily available and people became knowledgeable about the same. Coping with Covid 19 may be difficult for people, but it became essential as it taught a lot of people. Unlocking the pandemic, unlocked a more wiser and sustainable world for everyone.

“You can’t control everything. Sometimes you just need to relax and have faith that things will work out. Let go a little and just let life happen.” - Kody Keplinger

Covid-19

Busy human haven't got time to spend with his close one,
One person ate bat and whole world was locked at home all of the sudden,
Virus called "Corona" conquered over the air,
It made masks mandatory and popular more than any other wear,
Learnt new word "quarantine" and experienced curfew,
Doctors got their life in danger just to vaccinate you,
Mug cakes and dalgona coffee became a viral trends,
And family members with whom we didn't had lunch together in years became out good friends,
Suffocating in four walls felt safer than dying in outside air,
Every gate to go out was locked and felt like life got stuck in second gear,
Local trains took break after ages because of covid-19,
Unknowingly a disaster happened;
We lived a life in 2 years which we never imagined.

प्रकाशनाची तारीख - १ जानेवारी २०१२

प्रकार - आत्मकथन

“मी हिजडा मी लक्ष्मी” हे पुस्तक तृतीयपंथी व्यक्तीच्या जीवनावर आधारित आहे. तृतीयपंथाच्या समस्या त्याच्या अडचणी यावर हे आत्मचरित्र आहे. हे पुस्तक लिहण्याची अनेक कारणे आहेत. तृतीयपंथा विषयी गैरसमज दूर करणे , हिजडा म्हणजे नक्की काय आणि लेखिका लक्ष्मी याचा खडतर प्रवास यात सांगितलं आहे आणि म्हणून हे पुस्तक लिहिले आहे. लेखिका लक्ष्मी म्हणजे लक्ष्मीनारायण त्रिपाठी ही एक तृतीयपंथी सेलिब्रिटी आहे. अनेकदा आपण तिला टीव्हीवर पाहिलेले आहे. शाळेत असताना माझ्या बाईंनी मला हे पुस्तक वाचायला दिले. पुस्तक हाती पडताच मनात माझ्या विचार आला हे कोणत पुस्तक , हे काय आहे ह्या पुस्तकात आणि हे पुस्तक वाचून मला ह्यातून काय ज्ञान मिळणार.

पुढच्या पानावर काहीतरी भारी लिहिलेले असेल या आशेवर जगणे म्हणजे बालपण होय. असं जरी आपण म्हणत असलो तरी लक्ष्मीच्या पुढच्या पानांवर खडतर प्रवास आणि वेदना होत्या. लक्ष्मीनारायण त्रिपाठी ठाण्यात राहणारा मुलगा , घरात आई वडील आणि भावंडासोबत राहणारा इतर मुलासारखा खेळणारा, शाळेत जाणारा, शिकणारा असं सार सुरळीत सुरु होत. वयाच्या सातव्या वर्षी त्यावर संकट आले ते म्हणजे लैंगिक शोषणाचा, चुलत भावाचे लग्न असताना त्याच्यावर हे संकट आले. आपण गे आहोत हे आपल्या कुटुंबाला कसे सांगायचे हे लक्ष्मीनारायण यांच्यासमोर एक कोडंच होते.

“मी हिजडा मी लक्ष्मी”, “हिजडा” हा शब्द मोठ्याने उच्चरण समाजाला नकोस वाटत. तो शब्द आपल्या जगण्याचा एक भाग आहे, हे लक्ष्मीने आत्मकथनात सांगितले आहे. पुस्तकाच्या शेवटी हिजडा म्हणजे काय याची माहिती मिळते. लैंगिकशोषणातून ओरबाडलं जाणार बालपण, समाजात एका वेगळेच नजरेने लोक बघतात, तसेच आपण एक हास्याचा विषय ठरतो, तृतीयपंथी म्हणून जगताना किती त्रास होतो ते कळते. म्हणून पुस्तकाला “मी हिजडा मी लक्ष्मी” नाव दिले आहे. तसेच हिजड्याचा इतिहास स्त्री आणि पुरुष या दोन जाती तर आहेच तसंच तिसर रूप म्हणजे ¼तृतीयपंथ½ असू शकत आणि समाज म्हणून आपण ते स्वीकारायला पाहिजे .

या पुस्तकातून खूप काही शिकायला आणि नवीन गोष्टी समजतात. पुस्तकाचं वैशिष्ट्य म्हणजे त्यात लक्ष्मीचीच नव्हे तर प्रत्येक तृतीयपंथीचे आत्मकथन लिहिले आहे. समाजात अजुनही लैंगिकतेविषयी मोकळेपणाने बोलले जात नाही तिथं लहानग्या लक्ष्मीनारायणच्या मनातलं उठणार काहूर आणि लैंगिक अत्याचार आणि त्यामुळे आलेली संकटे या आत्मकथेत वाचायला मिळतात, परिस्थिती माणसाला घडवते इथेही अबोल लाजऱ्या आणि शांत असलेल्या लक्ष्मीनारायणला परिस्थितीने कसे घडवले आणि प्रयत्नपूर्वक तिनं स्वतःला कस बदलवल हे वाचताना अंगावर काटा येतो. खरं तर हे पुस्तक सगळ्यांनीच वाचलं पाहिजे, खूप माहिती मिळते आणि तृतीयपंथाची पण एक जीवन असते. त्यांच्याकडे बघून हसण्यापेक्षा किंवा त्यांना बघून दूर जाण्यापेक्षा आपण त्यांना आपल्यातलं एक समजायला हवं. जसे स्त्री व पुरुष यांना सर्व हक्क,सुविधा,न्याय आहेत तसेच त्यांनाही आपण दिले पाहिजे.

या पुस्तकात लक्ष्मीची माहिती व तिचा खडतर प्रवास सांगितला आहे. वाचताना जस जस पान उलटेल तस तस काळीज अजून घट्ट घट्ट होत जात. परिस्थिती कशीही असूदे मात आपण करायलाच हवा. हे या पुस्तकातून कळते हे पुस्तक नव्या पिढीसाठी खूपच उपयुक्त ठरेल. एक वेगळपण आहे या पुस्तकात आणि तेच आपण आत्मसात करायला हवं.

पुस्तकाचे नाव : तीन हजार टाके

लेखिका : सुधा मूर्ती

प्रकाशन : पेंग्विन रँडम हाऊस इन इंडिया

वर्ष : २०१७

सुधा मूर्ती हे नाव आपण अनेकदा ऐकले असेल लिखाणात साधेपणा आणि त्यातून सामान्य लोकांसाठी एक असामान्य विचार मांडण्यासाठी केलेली धडपड आपल्याला माहित आहे. मी हे पुस्तक वाचायला घेतल आणि त्या कथांतून खूप प्रेरित झाली. सुधा मूर्ती यांच्या आयुष्यात आलेले अनेक अनुभव प्रसंग त्यांना लाखमोलाची शिकवण देऊन गेले पुस्तकातील माझी आवडती बाजू म्हणजे कथांना दिलेली आकर्षक शीर्षक आणि सोबतची विशेषण या दोन्ही कथा डोळ्यासमोर येते आणि वाचून अर्थ लागतो.

"तीन हजार टाके " या पुस्तकामधून मानवी स्वभावाच्या दोन्ही बाजूंचा म्हणजेच सौंदर्य आणि घृणा यांचा विचार केला आहे या कथासंग्रहातील प्रत्येक कथा हि सत्यकथा आहे. माणसाच्या आयुष्यातील संघर्ष आणि त्यातून निघणाऱ्या वेगवेगळ्या यशाच्या वाटा यांचे अत्यंत मार्मिक चित्रण केले आहे. यात एकूण ११ कथा आहेत, या कथामधून आयुष्य सन्मानाने कसे जगता येते हे सांगितले आहे. बऱ्याच वेळा आपण हिंमत आणि धैर्य दाखवून केलेली लहानातील लहान गोष्ट देखील इतरांसाठी आयुष्यभर लक्षात ठेवण्यासाठी होते. विचारांची सजावट आणि त्यातून मिळणारा बोध हि या पुस्तकाची जमेची बाजू आहे.

'तीन हजार टाके' या तीन शब्दाचा अर्थ हा खूप प्रेणादायी आहे. एका कथेतून त्यांनी ह्याचा सुंदर विस्तार केला आहे की , माणसाला दिलेल्या भेटवस्तूची किंमत हि कधीच महत्वाची नसते तर त्या मागील भावना व उद्देश महत्वाचा असतो. ती कथा खूप भावनिक व हृदयस्पर्शी कथा आहे, हा शीर्षक पुस्तकासाठी खूप योग्य आहे.

लेखिकेने 'इन्फोसिस फॉउंडेशन' या माध्यमातून काम करत असताना, समाजातील विविध प्रकारच्या घटकासोबत त्यांचा परिचय झाला होता. त्यावेळी समाजातल्या दुर्लक्षित घटकांच्या आयुष्याबद्दल तसेच त्यांना येणाऱ्या दैनंदिन जीवनातल्या अडचणी, त्यांचा संघर्ष, त्यांना होणाऱ्या वेदना या कथासंग्रहामधून सुधा मूर्ती यांनी अत्यंत साध्या आणि सोप्या शब्दात मांडले आहे. देवदासाठी समाजासाठी केलेले काम त्याची माहिती व त्यात आलेल्या अडचणी तसेच बॉलिवूड चित्रपटांच्या बाबतीत परदेशात आलेले अनुभव आपल्या वडिलांचा प्रेमळ स्वभाव, भारतीय भाग्यांचे मूळ स्थान आणि इंजिनिअरिंग कॉलेजमध्ये शेकडो मुलांमध्ये एकुलती एक मुलगी म्हणून शिकत असताना आलेल्या अडचणी त्या विषयी कथन केले आहे. कारण अगदी सोप्या भाषेत त्यांनी सामान्य माणसाच्या आयुष्यातले असामान्य अनुभव आपल्या पर्यंत पोहचवले आहेत.

जसा भारत देश विविध संस्कृतीचा, प्रदेशाचा, परंपराचा आहे, अगदी तसंच हे पुस्तक विविध स्वभाव, प्रवृत्ती, दृष्टीकोन यांनी नटलेलं आहे. खरंच या जगात असंख्य माणसे आहेत पण त्यातील साम्य असलेलं 'खास व्यक्तित्व' सुधा मूर्ती, आणि त्याची ग्रंथसंपदा यांच्याबद्दल लिहण्यासारखं खुप काही आहे. त्यात वाचण्यासाठी सगळीच पुस्तक चांगली आहेत पण मला वाटत त्या वाचनाची सुरुवात इथून करायला काही हरकत नाही, वेगवेगळ्या स्वभावाची माणसं तुम्हाला नक्की भेटतीलच पण प्रत्येकजण काही ना काही देऊन जाईल. समाज तसा विविध घातकांनीं भरलेला असतो अगदी तसाच विविध माणसांनी, स्वभावानी भरलेला एक वेगळाच समाज पाहायला मिळेल, म्हणून हे पुस्तक प्रत्येकाने आवर्जून वाचाच ! वाचाल तर समजेल कि प्रत्येक माणसाच्या अतरंगी दिसण्यामागे त्याचा अतरंगी स्वभावही दडलेला असतो.

नातं

नातं जपायचे असत
नातं जगायचे पण असत
कितीही झाल तरी ते,
प्रामाणिकपणे टिकवायचही असते.
नात सहवासाने फुलत जाते
नात मनानेच जुळून जाते
कितीही झाल तरी ते
हळू हळू एकमेकात गुंतत असते.
नात अनुभवायचे असते
नात निभावायचे असते
कितीही झाले तरी त्यात
एकमेकांना सांभाळून घ्यायचे असते.

कितीही भाडण झाले तरी
एकमेकांवर रुसून बसायच नसते.

मनुष्य- हम मिल कर तुम्हारा सामना करेंगे और तुमसे बचने के उपाए करते रहेंगे। तुम्हारी भलाई इसी में है की तुम यहाँ से चले जाओ।

कोरोना- तुम लोग मुझे किताना भी इराना चाही तो भी मे यह से नहीं जाऊँगा। मनुष्य- कोरोना कर पाओगे। तुम हमारी ऐकता, निडरता को नहीं जानते हो यह हमारी ताकद है। इसका मुकाबला नहीं

कोरोना- शायद तुम सभी मनुष्य सही हो मुझे यहां से जाना ही पड़ेगा ।।

सोने का सिक्का

नंदिनी एस

सोनी (एफ.वाय.जे.सी)

एक गाँव में मोहन नाम का आदमी अपनी छोटी सी बेटी के साथ रहता था। यह एक किसान था, जो अपनी दिन दई नी खर्च के लिए खेती करके अनाज बेचता था। उसकी बेटी का नाम सुशीला या जी पहली कक्षा में पढ़ती। वह मनोहरपुर नामक गाँव में रहते थे, वहाँ अभी अभी राजाओं का राज था।

वहाँ राजा मंगलसेन नामक एक राजा थे। जो बहुत दयालु स्वभाव के थे। वह अपने गाँव वासियों में रोज रोटियाँ बटवाते थे। उनकी रोटियाँ लेने सभी गाँव वासियों जाते थे। जिसमें से एक में मोहन की बेटी सुशीला भी थी। वह और उसके पिता रोज रोटियाँ बन जाते हैं और घर बहुत स्वादिष्ट होती थी आकर रोटियाँ मिलकर खाते थे। वह रोटियाँ एक दिन सुशील्य के पिता खता कर रहे तो वह अकल ही रोटी लेने गई थी। वह अपने लिए और अपने पिता जी के अकेले ही कर जाकर रोटी लाती है। वह जब तक घर पहुंचती है, तब तक उसके पिता भी अपने काम से मुक्त हो गए थे। वह अपने पिता जी को बुलाती बुलाती है और दोनों मिलकर खाने बैठ बैठते हैं।

वह नियमित की तरह से खाना खाने बैठते हैं तो वह शुरुवात करते हैं। सुशीला अपनी रोटी का पहला निवाला भी है, तो इसके सने हाथ में कोई सिक्का नहीं मिलता, पर जैसे ही वो दूसरा निवाला तोड़ती है तो यह देखती है, कि यह तो एक सिक्का है, वह जैसे ही देखती है. सिक्के को वह झटपट अपने पिता को बताती है। उसके पिता भी वह सिल्ला देखकर आश्चर्य चकीत हो जाते हैं। वह सोचने लगते हैं कि यह सिक्का यहाँ कैसे आया होगा ? वह अपने मन ही मन सोचते हैं कि यह सिक्का गलती से आ गया होगा। तभी वह अपने राजा का महल में जाते हैं और उन्हें सब सच बताते हैं।

तभी उनका राजा उन्हें बोलना है, कि यह सिक्का हमने ही रखा क ऐसे उत्तर देते हैं। ताकि हम माल हो की हमारे गाँव में कॉल इमानदार है। वह राजा उन दोनों को इमानदारी देखकर खुश हो जाता है, और उन्हें वह सिक्का इनाम दे देता है, और अन्य सिक्के भी देता है परंतु वह मना कर देते हैं, और कहते हैं, हमारा और तो कर्ज था, सिक्के लौटाना, परंतु राजा उनकी नहीं सुनते वह वह सिक्के उन्हें कसीस के इनाम के और तौर पर दे देते हैं। जिससे उनका भला होता है और वह समझ जाते हैं कि अच्छे का कल अच्छा ही होता है।

सीख :इमानदारी का फल हमेशा ही मिलता है कविता लेखन

मेरे प्यारे पापा ।

रिया राजेश

नाइक (एफ.वाय.जे.सी)

मम्मी से शादी होने के बाद आया उनके जिंदगी में

अड़तालीस साल पहले हुई थी खुशी से सबकी आँखें नम,

अम और मेहनत की हैं हमेशा,

तब हुआ था उनका जनमा।

हरदम पूरी की हमारी आशा।

छोटी सी ही उम्र में किए काम बड़े।

हमेशा कष्ट किया, ना देखा सोमवार, मंगलवार या रविवार,

पंद्रह साल की उम्र में हुए अपने पैरो पर खड़े।

तब जाकर बना है सूखी हमारा परिवार।

अठ्ठारा साल की उम्र में फेड़ लिया माँ-बाप का कर्ज,

पापा, आपने की हमारी सारी इच्छाएँ पूरी ।

हमेशा ही किया पूरा उन्होंने अपना फर्ज ।

सहें उन्होंने जीवन में बहुत दुःख,

दोस्ती नाम है सुख-दुख की कहानी का,
दोस्ती राज है सदा ही मुस्कराने का,
ये कोई पल भर की जान-पहचान नहीं,
दोस्ती वादा है उम्र भर साथ निभाने का.....

जिंदगी में किसी का साथ काफ़ि है,
कंठे पर किसी का हाथ काफ़ि है,
दूर हो या पास क्या फरक पडता है,
अनमोल रिश्तों का तो बस एहसास ही काफ़ि है।...

'पल्कों में कैद कुछ सपने हैं,
कुछ पराम और कुछ अपने हैं.
जाने क्या कशिश है इन ख्यालों में,
कुछ लोग हमसे दूर हो के भी कितने अपने हैं।

किसी दिन तेरी नजर से दूर हो जाएंगे हम,
दूर फिजाओं में कहीं खो जाएंगे हम,
मेरी यादों से लिपट के रोने आओगे तुम,
जब जमीन को ओद कर सो जाएंगे हम.....

मेरी दोस्ती के सारे एहसास ले लो,
दिल से प्यार के सारे जज्बात ले लो,
नहीं छोड़ेंगे साथ तुम्हारा,
इस दोस्ती के चाहे हजारों इम्तेहान ले लो।

ऐ बारीश जरा थम के बरस,
जब वो आजाए तो जम के बरस,
पहले न बरस के वो आ न सके,
फिर इतना बरस के वो जान सके

काश मेरी जिंदगी में आर्य एक ऐसी बरसात,
मेरे हाथ मे है तेरा हाथ,
भिगते रहे हम सारी रात,
हॉट रहे खामोश बस आँखों से हो तेरी मरी बाता

आज मौसम कितना खमोश गवर हो जाया,
खतम सब का इंतजार हो गया,
बारिश की बुँदे गिरी कुछ इस तरह,
कि लगा जैसे आसमान को जमी से प्यार हो गया।

आज बैठा तो एक ख्याल आया,
खुद को देखा तो एक सवाल आया,
मुद्दत गुजारदी किसी को खुश करने में,
कहा है मेरा सुकून ये सवाल आया ।

में तोड़ लेता अगर तुम गुलाब होती.
में जवाब होता अगर तुम सवाल होती
तुम जानती हो मैं नशा नहीं करता,
मगर पी लेता अगर तुम शराब होती..!

बचपन की यादें

बचपन की वो मीठी यादें अफसर अपना सवाद चखाया करती हैं,
माँ की लोरी पापा का प्यार अकसर याद दिलाया करती है।
बेखोफ घुमा करते थे हम... बेखौफ फरमाइशे किया करते थे हम
पूरी होती हर फरमाइशे... अब तो बस जरूरते पूरी होती है,
हा बचपन की वो मीठो याद नम आंखों के साथ अकसर याद आया करती है।....

विद्यालय जीवन

आता है याद वो स्कूल का जमाना
वो एक दूसरे को बचाना,
कोई एक परेशान होतो सब मिलके उसे समझाना।
वो साथ बैठकर हसना मुस्कुराना
शरारत करके चुप हो जाना
वो विज्ञान या गणित के अवधि में सोजाना
ना भुलेंगे वो दिन और वो बातें
अगर कुछ है तो यदि ही यादे ।...

मौसम है बारीश का और याद तुम्हारी आति है।

मौसम है बारीश का और याद तुम्हारी आति है।
बारीश के हर कतरे से आवाज तुम्हारी आती है।
बादल जब गरजते हैं दिल की धड़कन बढ़ा जाती हैं, दिल की हर धड़कन से आवाज तुम्हारी आति हैं।

जब तेज हवाएँ चलती है,
तो जान हमारी जाती है,
मौसम है बारिश का और याद तुम्हारी आती है....

पहला प्यार

जिंदगी का पहला प्यार कौन भुलता है,
ये पहली बार होता है,
जब कोई किसी को खुद से बढ़कर चाहता है।
उसकी पसंद, उसकी खाहिश में खुद को भूल जाता है।
अकेले में उसका नाम लिख-लिख मिटाता है।
बत करने से पहले सोचता है क्या कहना है।
बात होने के बाद फिर भी कुछ रह जाता है।
होता है खूबसूरत कितना पहला प्यार
नजाने क्यों अक्सर अधूरा रह जाता है पहला प्यार" ।।।
